ENJOYING OUR SUMMER BREAK

Asian Palate welcomes the summer months with a break from exhibitions and events. While we are surviving the heat in Hong Kong, Jeannie is in Paris wrapping up her next book. Starting in September, find Jeannie at two internationally renowned gourmet events, the Four Seasons Bangkok's 13th annual World Gourmet Festival and the Seoul Gourmet 2012. Both festivals celebrate the juncture of fine wine with gastronomic excellence and Jeannie will be presenting her pioneering concepts to bridge the gap between Asian cuisine and wine.

VIEWPOINT: ASIA'S EVOLVING TASTE FOR WINE

Asia is a continent of self-professed foodies- a place where we live to eat. Jeannie shares her thoughts on the evolving taste and appreciation for wine. Click here to read the full article which was first printed by BBC.
