

Meet Asia's First Master of Wine

The Grand Hyatt Erawan Bangkok together with Jeannie Cho Lee, the first Asian Master of Wine, invites all to an exclusive wine pairing dinner at Tables restaurant on Thur, Sept 29 from 6:30pm.

Born in South Korea, Jeannie Cho Lee is the first Asian to obtain the Master of Wine title from the prestigious Institute of Masters of Wine in London. Jeannie has been a regular contributor to international publications such as Wine Spectators and Revue du Vin.

At Tables, Jeannie will select award-winning wines to complement the specially-created, five-course Asian-style menu. During the evening, she will also introduce "Mastering Wine for the Asian Palate", the 2nd edition of her Asian Palate book, which is perfect for wine and food enthusiasts.

Tickets for the wine dinner cost 4,000 baht net, including a copy of Mastering Wine for the Asian Palate. For reservations, call 02-254-1234.
