Popular Mulled Wine and Cheese Fondue are back in time for the festive season

Mulled Wine

(Hong Kong, 6 November, 2013) - Tis' the season to be jolly, making it the perfect time to indulge in a glass of soothing mulled wine and a hearty cheese fondue. From November 1, guests can enjoy the warm beverage and the traditional delicacy at Peak Cafe Bar.

Prepared from three types of Swiss cheese including Appenzeller, Vacherin and Gruyere with white wine and the fruity brandy Kirsch, the Peak Cafe Bar Cheese Fondue ($288) gives customers an authentic taste of the Swiss dish. Guests can savour the rich cheese with crusty white bread, cornichons and pearl onions. Don't forget to try the shots of original appenzeller herbal schnapps served with the fondue!

Originated from Europe and has been created with variations in different countries, the Mulled Wine ($58) at Peak Cafe Bar is a traditional version prepared with red wine, brandy, sugar, orange, apple, lemon peel, cinnamon sticks and cloves inserted around the orange. It is prepared by putting all the ingredients into a big saucepan and boil on low heat for around an hour and a half to two hours until the aroma fills the air. Then, turn off the heat and drain all of the fruit and cinnamon sticks, leaving the liquid clear and without any bits left in it. A nice heart-warming glass of mulled wine is then ready for one's enjoyment.

All prices mentioned above are subject to 10% service charge. High-resolution photos are available upon request.

Peak Cafe Bar is located at G/F, 9-13 Shelley Street, Soho, Central, Hong Kong and it opens from Monday to Friday from 11am to 2am, Saturday from 9am to 2am, Sunday and Public Holidays from 9am to 12am. For more information, please call +852 2140 6877, email peakcafebar@cafedecogroup.com.
