Welcome to our first edition of China's Top Online Wines! I am thrilled with the results of the first blind tasting of 250 of the most popular wines sold online in China in 2017. All the wines were tasted blind and grouped by price and style. Overall, the wines showed much better than I expected and I found many wines that I would happily recommend to family and friends. Thus this project was born, out of a simple curiosity to find out the true quality of wines sold online in China, the fastest growing sales platform for wine. Bravo to all the highly rated wines, the wineries and most importantly, the dedicated people behind the wines!

I. Top Rated Wines

From Champagne to New Zealand Pinot Noir and Sicilian Syrah, there are some fantastic wines above 91 points available online. These four wines offer an amazing wine experience and really represent the epitome of their style. Any wine that I rate above 90 points is highly recommended and these wines definitely earned their high marks through their balance, depth, inimitable style and ability to reflect their unique terroir.

1. 2014 Craggy Range Te Muna Road Vineyard Pinot Noir, Martinborough, New Zealand

92

Grape Variety: Pinot Noir

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note:

A beautiful Pinot Noir with lovely depth of flavors which starts out with an intoxicating bouquet: crushed violets, jasmine and wild strawberries. The palate is silky yet persistent with freshness and lifted flavors of cherries and strawberries. The savory edge is there too, coming through with an herbal, grippy finish. Perfect to enjoy now.

2. NV Duval-Leroy Fleur de Champagne Brut Premier Cru, Champagne, France

92

Grape Variety: Champagne blend

Color: White

Alcohol Level: 12%

Jeannie's tasting note:

Linear and fresh, this non-vintage Champagne has all the nuances and delicacy that you would expect from a wonderfully balanced Champagne. Lifted, elegant, fresh and persistent - this Champagne has it all.

¥702, East Meets West
Fine Wines

3. 2012 Ornellaia Le Serre Nuove dell'Ornellaia DOC, Tuscany, Italy

92

Grape Variety: Bordeaux Blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 14.5%

Jeannie's tasting note:

There is sweetness and generosity in this delicious Bordeaux blend from Tuscany. Expect to find classic cassis, cedarbox and tobacco flavors as well as firm tannins, a freshness and lift in the core of this delicious wine. The finish is fairly long and the wine should keep and evolve well for at least another 6-8 years. Bordeaux in style but distinctively Italian.

¥460, Wine-World.com

4. 2011 Planeta Syrah Sicilia IGT, Sicily, Italy

92

Grape Variety: Syrah

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 14.5%

Jeannie's tasting note:

A delicious Syrah that has a fabulous nose of black pepper, nutmeg and cloves along with roasted meat and dark berry fruit. This wine is fully mature, showing complex, bottled-aged characteristics which reveals how well Syrah can perform in Sicily. A beautifully crafted, spicy red.

IV. Diamond Country Award

It is not a surprise that France had the most number of wines (24) that were highly rated and awarded in our tasting since French wines made up the largest submitted samples. However, it is Chile that stands out as a country that offers amazing consistency, quality and value. This year's Diamond Country Award goes to Chile for submitting some outstanding wines at fantastic values. Congratulations to Wines of Chile!

1. 2016 Beronia Crianza, Rioja, Spain

85

Grape Variety: Tempranillo

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note:

A great value Rioja that offers juicy strawberry and dark cherry flavors. This wine has layers of sweet red berry fruit, balanced by moderate tannins that are gentle and ripe with medium body and good finish. This Spanish red wine definitely over-delivers and provides delicious drinking pleasure now.

¥98, YesMyWine.com

2. 2013 Chateau Les Moulanes, Bordeaux, France

85

Grape Variety: Bordeaux Blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13%

Jeannie's tasting note:

This wine really punches above its weight, offering very good value. The nose is evocative of a more expensive cru classe red: Find violets, cedar and cassis.

This balanced, medium-bodied red Bordeaux has supple, round tannins and a nice finish. While the wine is more evolved than what I would expect from a 2013 Bordeaux, it is delicious. Not a wine for keeping/aging, but one to enjoy now.

¥99, JD.com: COFCO W & W International

3. 2015 Entercoop Suamgy Reserve de Bordeaux, Bordeaux, France

84

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 12.5%

Jeannie's tasting note:

A good value Bordeaux red that is quite representative of the earthy, blackberry and cassis flavors that many people expect and enjoy from this region. The tannins are firm, ripe and well managed, without any rough or coarse edges. Balanced, subtle, round and perfect to enjoy now.

¥89, T-Mall.com: Suamgy Wines

4. 2016 Maola Meli Duam Merlot, Central Valley, Chile

84

Grape Variety: Merlot

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13%

Jeannie's tasting note:

A juicy, fresh, delicious Merlot that is uncomplicated, direct and filled with ripe plum and dark cherry flavors. This is a medium-bodied, fresh red wine from Chile that offers very good value. I would feel confident recommending this wine to enjoy at barbecues, casual meals and for large parties.

¥43, Jiuxian.com

5. 2015 Wolf Blass Red Label Cabernet Merlot, South Australia, Australia

84

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note:

This is a juicy, generous red wine with ripe cherries, plums and blackberries. The tannins are firm with a supple texture. This is a delicious red that offers good value given its ripe, approachable flavors and good finish.

¥98, Treasury Wine Estates

6. 2015 Wolf Blass Red Label Shiraz Cabernet, South Australia, Australia

84

Grape Variety: Shiraz/Cabernet

Color: Red Sauvignon

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note:

A juicy, delicious Shiraz-Cabernet blend from Australia! This medium-bodied red offers ripe red plums, spices, cooked fruits and nutmeg. Soft, approachable and sweet, this wine will appeal to anyone who enjoys generous, ripe red wines with a clear dash of sunshine.

¥98, Treasury Wine Estates

1. 2010 Chateau de Lastours Corbieres Cuvee Simone Descamps, Languedoc- Roussillon, France

90

Grape Variety: Rhone blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 14.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A full bodied, quite generous red that is a delicious blend of Syrah, Grenache and Carignan. The flavors are seamless and beautifully integrated after 7 years of age. This wine is at its peak, displaying all its splendor with layers of flavors that are best appreciated now.

¥195, Week Wine

2. 2015 Cono Sur Reserva Especial Pinot Noir, Casablanca Valley, Chile

90

Grape Variety: Pinot Noir

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A delicious Pinot Noir that delivers wonderful balance: filled with ripe, dark cherries, sweet spices and herbs, this is no ordinary, simple Pinot. There is depth, balance, grippy ripe tannins and a minerality that comes through in the finish. Given its modest price level, I would recommend this wine to anyone who enjoys Pinot Noir.

¥135, YesMyWine.com

3. 2014 Maycas del Limari Syrah Reserva, Limari Valley, Chile

90

Grape Variety: Syrah

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A wonderful Syrah that blends minerality and savory characteristics with sweet, dark berry fruit and dark spices evocative of cool climate Syrah. A beautifully crafted Syrah that offers the best of Chile's sunshine with the earthy, spiciness of northern Rhone.

4. 2015 Errazuriz Special Selection President's Choice Cabernet Sauvignon Merlot, Aconcagua Valley, Chile

89

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A delicious Cabernet blend that is Bordeaux-like on the nose but offers the sweetness and generosity of a warmer climate, generous red wine. Perfect to enjoy now, this wine is balanced, layered and quite intense with a persistent finish. A full-bodied, great value red wine from Chile.

¥168, YesMyWine.com

5. 2015 Nederburg The Wine master's Reserve Shiraz, Western Cape, South Africa

89

Grape Variety: Shiraz

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 14.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A delicious, spicy, restrained Shiraz from South Africa. The meaty, bacon fat of Northern Rhone comes through in this wine with subtle layers of savory herbs, game and dark berry fruit. Layered and subtle with a lovely finish. A great value wine that I would recommend to any Shiraz/ Syrah lover.

¥107, ASC Fine Wines

6. 2015 Torres Sangre de Toro, Catalonia, Spain

89

Grape Variety: Carinena/ Garnacha

Color: Red Blend

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A delicious red that offers great value and plenty of ripe fruit flavors. The palate is supple and round, with layers of black plums and black cherries accented by dark spices. There is a gentle grip of tannins on the palate as well as a firm finish. Well crafted and harmonious - delicious to drink now. A great value red!

1. 2009 Chateau Cissac, Bordeaux, France

91

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A delicious Haut-Medoc red that really shows how wonderful the 2009 vintage is across the board. This is a terrific Bordeaux red that has the density, ripeness and focus that one would expect from a cru classe chateau. In 2009 however, even cru Bourgeois and basic Bordeaux reds without the high price tag made terrific wine.

¥398, Wine-World.com

2. 2012 Chateau de Fieuzal, Bordeaux, France

91

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

This Bordeaux has a very pretty nose of violets and sweet cedar. The palate is layered, gentle with a lovely interplay between ripe dark berry fruits and savory spices. Delicious, ripe red with a persistent finish. This wine is just starting to open up now.

¥388, Wine-World.com

3. 2012 Chateau Lynch-Moussas, Bordeaux, France

91

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13%

Jeannie's tasting note

An impressive red Bordeaux that is showing beautifully now. The tannins are velvety and firmly balanced by sweet cassis and cedar notes. This is a wonderful red that is just reaching its peak and will be delicious from now and over the next 6-8 years. Classic Pauillac, well-crafted and balanced.

¥350, Wine-World.com

4. 2014 Cono Sur La Rinconada Single Vineyard Block 28 Carmenere, Cachapoal Valley, Chile

91

Grape Variety: Carmenere

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 14%

Jeannie's tasting note

Lovely Carmenere with ripe tannins and savory, herbal flavors. This is a fantastic example of the high quality Carmenere that Chile has been producing for the past 5 years. No longer are the Carmeneres tannic and green, the modern renditions are voluptuous, savory, herbal and sweet. This wine has ripe, sweet tannins and a fairly long finish.

¥346, YesMyWine.com

5. 2008 Campania Bodeguera Valenciso Reserva, Rioja, Spain 90

Grape Variety: Rioja Red Blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 14.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

This solid, intense Rioja is a lovely concentrated red that has the best of Old World wine's restraint with

New World wine's polished tannins and ripeness. The palate offers a wonderful interplay of savory herbs, black fruits and spices - the tannins are very well managed with a nice finish.

¥328, Easycellar Wines & Spirit

6. NV Charles Du Roy Champagne Brut Premier Cru, Champagne, France 90

Grape Variety: Champagne blend

Color: White

Alcohol Level: 12%

Jeannie's tasting note

An elegant Champagne that is linear, focused and quite detailed. The citrus, nutty flavors are well balanced by the fresh acidity and fine mousse. A delicious, balanced Champagne offering very good value.

¥259, YesMyWine.com

7. 2011 Charles Du Roy Champagne Brut Millesime, Champagne, France

90

Grape Variety: Champagne Blend
Color: White
Alcohol Level: 12.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

This is a well-crafted, balanced Champagne with delicate, lively citrus and nutty flavors. The mousse is fine and delicate with a palate that dances on the tongue - light, airy and nuanced. Fairly long finish.

Alcohol Level: 14.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A delicious blend of Syrah and other southern French varieties to produce a juicy, quite complex red with lovely flavors. The palate offers savory roasted herbs, dark berries, spices and ripe figs along with supple, firm tannins. Fairly long finish. A wine that offers very good value for money.

9. 2012 Chateau Desmirail, Bordeaux, France

90

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 12%

Jeannie's tasting note

A fresh, lively Margaux red with wonderful persistence and youthful vigor. While the tannins are soft and ripe, the flavors are still quite youthful and can further evolve over time. This wine is just reaching its peak now, but it should be even better in 2-3 years time.

¥355, Wine-World.com

10. 2012 Chateau du Tertre, Bordeaux, France

90

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A very pretty Margaux red with jasmine and violet notes along with cedar and blackberries. Subtle, balanced and ready to enjoy now - a delicious wine that is just opening up and should keep well for a decade.

¥328, Wine-World.com

11. 2014 Domaine Vico Vin de Corse Clos Venturi 1769 Rouge, Corsica, France

90

Grape Variety: Carcajolo Nero
Color: Red
Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

This savory, medium-bodied red is subtle, layered and filled with roasted herbs, dark berry fruit and sweet spices. A full-bodied, generous red without being over-ripe or punchy with an under-stated restraint in its personality. Earthy, fairly long finish. A great value wine!

¥220, Shanghai Prolevin Wines

12. 2007 Marianne Estate Floreal, Paarl, South Africa

90

Grape Variety: Cabernet Sauvignon/
Color: Red Merlot/Syrah Blend
Alcohol Level: 14.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

Full-bodied, generous Cabernet Sauvignon-based blend from Paarl, South Africa, that has a meaty, savory character. The dark fruit flavors are sweet with a dried prune note, but the palate has plenty of savory, gamey notes to balance out the ripe flavors. A powerful red wine that is at its peak right now at 10 years of age.

¥380, Shanghai Prolevin Wines

13. 2016 Pikes Traditionale Riesling, Clare Valley, Australia

90

Grape Variety: Riesling

Color: White

Alcohol Level: 11.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

This is an attractive, lovely Riesling from Clare Valley with gentle, delicate flavors. The palate is lifted, fresh and filled with lime and jasmine flowers balanced by a sharp, linear and citrusy palate. Elegant, intense and lively - a wonderful combination. This is a wine that will age/evolve beautifully with time; it will continue to improve for at least 10 years in bottle.

¥267, East Meets West Fine Wines

14. 2014 Silver Heights Family Reserve, Ningxia, China

90

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A well made, delicious Cabernet blend from Ningxia. This wine has balance, ripe cassis and black-berry flavors complemented by firm, supple tannins. Medium-bodied red with beautifully composed flavors that has lovely purity and elegance.

¥308, Ever Wines

15. 2012 Warwick Estate Three Cape Ladies Cape Blend, Stellenbosch, South Africa

90

Grape Variety: Cabernet Sauvignon
Color: Red / Shiraz Blend
Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A full-bodied, tannic red that has meaty, smokey flavors along with dark berries and herbs. A Well crafted, quite powerful Pinotage-Cabernet Sauvignon blend with the density of both varieties coming through in a harmonious symphony. Long, lingering finish.

1. 2014 Craggy Range Te Muna Road Vineyard Pinot Noir, Martinborough, New Zealand

92

Grape Variety: Pinot Noir

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A beautiful Pinot Noir with lovely depth of flavors which starts out with an intoxicating bouquet: crushed violets, jasmine and wild strawberries. The palate is silky yet persistent with freshness and lifted flavors of cherries and strawberries. The savory edge is there too, coming through on the finish with an herbal, grippy finish. Perfect to enjoy now.

¥550, East Meets West Fine Wines

2. NV Duval-Leroy Fleur de Champagne Brut Premier Cru, Champagne, France

92

Grape Variety: Champagne blend

Color: White

Alcohol Level: 12%

Jeannie's tasting note

Linear and fresh, this non vintage Champagne has all the nuances and delicacy that you would expect from a wonderfully balanced Champagne. Lifted, elegant, fresh and persistent - this Champagne has it all.

¥702, East Meets West Fine Wines

3. 2012 Ornellaia Le Serre Nuove dell'Ornellaia DOC, Tuscany, Italy 92

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 14.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

There is sweetness and generosity in this delicious Bordeaux blend from Tuscany. Expect to find classic cassis, cedarbox and tabacco flavors as well as firm tannins, a freshness and lift in the core of this delicious wine. The finish is fairly long and the wine should keep and evolve well for at least another 6-8 years. Bordeaux in style but distinctively Italian.

¥460, Wine-World.com

4. 2011 Planeta Syrah Sicilia IGT, Sicily, Italy 92

Grape Variety: Syrah

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 14.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A delicious Syrah that has a fabulous nose of black pepper, nutmeg and cloves along with roasted meat and dark berry fruit. This wine is fully mature, showing complex, bottled-aged characters and reveals how well Syrah can perform in Sicily. A beautifully crafted, spicy red.

¥497, East Meets West Fine Wines

5. 2012 Chateau Grand-Puy-Lacoste, Bordeaux, France

91

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend
Color: Red
Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

This is an exuberant, delicious red Bordeaux that has a fabulous nose of cedar, spicy new oak and red currants. The palate is seductive, ripe and sweet, perfect to enjoy now, but this is a wine that will age and evolve well over the next 5 or more years.

¥505, Wine-World.com

6. 2013 Catena Zapata Catena Alta Cabernet Sauvignon, Bordeaux, France

90

Grape Variety: Cabernet Sauvignon
Color: Red
Alcohol Level: 14%

Jeannie's tasting note

A suave, seductive, generous Cabernet from Argentina with lifted blackberry and black plum flavors. The tannins are very well managed, being velvety and supple on the palate with a fairly long length. There is balance and intensity in this wine that is ready to enjoy now.

¥625, East Meets West Fine Wines

7. 2012 Chateau Brane-Cantenac, 90 Bordeaux, France

Grape Variety: Bordeaux blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13%

Jeannie's tasting note

A very pretty Margaux red with layers of violets, dark cherries and cedar. This medium-bodied red has ripe, rounded yet firm tannins and a palate that is supple and smooth. A wine to enjoy now and over the coming 6-8 years.

¥639, Wine-World.com

8. NV Duval-Leroy Brut Reserve, 90 Champagne, France

Grape Variety: Champagne blend

Color: White

Alcohol Level: 12%

Jeannie's tasting note

This biscuity, full-bodied, creamy Champagne is delicious to enjoy now. The fine mousse and richness on the mid palate makes it a wonderful aperitif to enjoy on its own. Nice complexity and length with plenty of flavor.

1. 2009 Chateau Cissac, Bordeaux, France

91

Grape Variety: Bordeaux Blend

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 13.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A delicious Haut-Medoc red that really shows how delicious the 2009 vintage is across the board. This is a terrific Bordeaux red that has the density, ripeness and focus that one would expect from a cru classe chateau.

In 2009 however, even cru Bourgeois and basic Bordeaux reds without the high price tag made terrific wine.

¥398, Wine-World.com

2. 2014 Penfolds Bin 407 Cabernet Sauvignon, South Australia, Australia

90

Grape Variety: Cabernet Sauvignon

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 14.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

A balanced, intense Cabernet Sauvignon filled with plums, blackberries and a touch of cinnamon. The tannins are firm, ripe, full and very well handled; these are polished, plush tannins.

This is an approachable, full-bodied red that coats the palate with its velvety tannins and ripe, generous black fruits. Delicious now.

¥780, Shenzhen Auneway Trading Co. Ltd

3. 2014 Penfolds Bin 128 Coonawarra Shiraz, South Australia, Australia

90

Grape Variety: Shiraz

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 14.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

I love the elegance and restraint in this focused, intense Shiraz from Coonawarra. The flavors are layered, ranging from cassis and black cherries to cedar and spices. Lovely balance, without any heaviness and a fairly long finish. Beautifully composed wine that offers great value!

¥468, Shenzhen Auneway Trading Co. Ltd

4. 2015 Los Vascos Las Huertas Cabernet Sauvignon, Colchagua, Chile

88

Grape Variety: Cabernet Sauvignon

Color: Red

Alcohol Level: 14%

Jeannie's tasting note

A subtle, layered Cabernet Sauvignon that has a generous body, smoky, meaty flavors with a plummy finish. This wine was tasted blind and it is clearly a warm climate Cabernet blend given its ripeness, but the flavors are neither jammy nor flabby - the structure is quite firm and the flavors carry through to the finish. A very good value wine.

¥149, ASC Fine Wines

5. 2013 Penfolds Koonunga Hill Shiraz Cabernet Sauvignon, South Australia, Australia

86

Grape Variety: Shiraz/Cabernet Sauvignon Blend
Color: Red
Alcohol Level: 14%

Jeannie's tasting note

A wonderful, balanced red that has just the right balance between lively fruit and ripe, rounded tannins.

There is nice harmony and lovely flavors that are approachable and delicious now. Well crafted wine that offers great value.

¥188, Shenzhen Auneway Trading Co. Ltd

6. 2015 Domaines Barons de Rothschild Lafite Selection Prestige Bordeaux Rouge, Bordeaux, France

85

Grape Variety: Bordeaux Blend
Color: Red
Alcohol Level: 12.5%

Jeannie's tasting note

Balanced, elegant Bordeaux red that has good balance and subtle layers of flavors - cassis, black-currants and black plums. The tannins are well managed and supple with nice mid palate depth and good length. This is not a complex red, but one that is a good example of a well-made, good value Bordeaux with elegance and harmony.
